

CONSENT FORM FOR LUNG TRANSPLANT

The lung transplant consent form provides information on the risks, potential complications and side effects of the lung transplant procedure. After reading and discussing it with the doctor, you should be well informed of the risks and benefits of the lung transplant.

The donor will be screened for potential infectious diseases and other medical conditions. However, certain infections and diseases may not be detectable at the time of the transplant, but can be transmitted during the transplant process or be detected after the transplant. The donor lung will be assessed by the procurement team before retrieval of the lung prior to transplantation. Suitability of the donor lung for transplantation will be discussed with you and your family.

I understand the following complications may occur:

Risks of open heart surgery

- Stroke.
- Renal impairment.
- Bleeding from the operation, or needing a repeat operation.
- Infection of any type.

Specific risks of Lung Transplantation

- Rejection of the new lung.
- The new lung may fail to function and need to be supported by machines.
- Reactions and side effects to immunosuppression drugs such as hypertension, renal impairment and diabetes.
- Risk of cancer (including cancer of white blood cells and skin).
- Airway anastomosis complications.
- Death is possible due to the procedure or later complications.

Psychosocial risks

- Personal and family stresses.

I accept I will be on lifelong medications to stop my immune system rejecting the new lung and any other medications that are necessary to control my medical conditions.

I hereby agree:

1. To undergo Lung Transplant
2. To undergo 4 times of Lung Biopsies (1st month, 3rd months, 6th months, 1 year and additional biopsies as necessary) to monitor for lung rejection.
3. For my explanted lung to be sent for histopathology examination and for research purposes.

I have read the above information provided and had the opportunity to ask questions and I am satisfied with the explanation and the answers to my questions.
